2. Applicant must currently be a junior or higher level.
3. Applicant must provide an official school transcript and two sealed letters of recommendation (family members are ineligible).

5. Completed application and additional required information must be returned to the Association office postmarked no later than Wednesday, November 13, 2019.
6. The scholarship winner is selected on a “blind” name identity basis by an outside party not affiliated with the Association.
